

“Survive the Savage Sea”

What Would You Take?

In the essay, “Survive the Savage Sea”, the Robertson family only has seconds to gather things before their sailboat sinks in the ocean. If you only had a few minutes to gather three things together before everything else is lost, what would you take and why. Be sure that at least one of these items has sentimental value to you. None of these items can be people. Everyone in your family will survive with you.
