

“The Eye of God”

Anticipation Guide and Post Reading Reflections Form

Anticipating the Story

1. Who is the one person that you look up to the most, and why do you look up to that person?

2. Write a paragraph about the most daring thing that you have ever done.

Post Reading Reflections

1. In the story, “The Eye of God”, the character of Little Man looks up to his older brother Billy. At the end of the story, the roles are reversed and Little Man becomes the new hero. At the very moment the Little Man is about to be crowned the new hero, he runs away. Why do you think he might have done that?

2. If you had been in Little Man’s shoes, what would you have done when the group of boys was running across the field to make you the new hero?
