

"ZOO"

Essential Question

1. Do the events in the plot challenge the characters to accept themselves, others, and their circumstances? Explain

In this story, the humans look at the aliens from Kaan as "freaks" because they are different. At the same time, the aliens from Kaan look at the humans as "freaks" for the same reason.

In the space below, write about an experience where you had to deal with someone who was nothing like you. How did you view them because of their differences? Did your opinion of that person change after you got to know them?
